BALL STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

SUMMER

Sultry daylight hours . . . emerald-leaved trees lending shade
Sun-fanned breezes . . . murky, humid nights broken by thunder
Dewey mornings . . . after a storm, the world standing out fresh
Earnest students, springing from bed . . . wisdom not lying in sleep
Campus dotted with students . . . dressed in cool, summer garb
Parti-colored bands forming . . . cerulean, amethyst, topaz, crimson
Voices mingling . . . bass, alto, tenor, baritone, soprano
People discussing . . . classes, recreation, dorms, the Tally-Ho
Glowing sun . . . "Wonder what the gang at home is doing?"

Students attending summer sessions at Ball State sometimes felt that two-hour daily classes required twice as many assignments to be completed in half the time.

Oleg Tupine and Maria Tallchief, dancers in "Swan Lake," and Myrna Gloria, ballerina in "The Ballet Espanol," rejoiced after an ovation for their performances.

As she whirled onto the stage Maria Tallchief, American prima ballerina, was enchanting in the role of the Swan Queen.

Someone has said, "A college education is found not only in the classroom but also through a variety of experiences that make each student a well-rounded individual." By attending concerts, plays, operas, lectures, and other programs offered by the college, a student experiences inspirational entertainment and enhances learning at the same time. The summer Arts Festival, a time when prominent people in the various arts visit Ball State campus, is one of many occasions that provides each Ball State student such opportunities.

Ballet, Play and Lectures Were Features of Summer Arts Festival

Tom Putman (Harold Reinoehl) and his wife, Ann Putman (Judy Riggan) tried to break the story of Tituba (Theresa Greenwood) the influenced Salem children in "The Crucible."

Modern American poet, John Crowe Ransom lectured on his works. His informative talks were spiced with folk humor.

Carlos de la Camara was ballet dancer and choreographer for "The Ballet Espanol."

Dr. John, Sr. (Bill Jennings) interrupted the party of Dr. John, Jr. (Ed Williams) in "Summer and Smoke."

Ball State summer Little Shoe String Theater produced six successful plays last season. The plays produced were chosen by Mr. Gilbert Bloom and Dr. Kent Gallagher.

Directors were the music department, Gene Rajchel, Betty Hinshaw, Cathleen Griffith, Irene Belcher, and Larry Life.

The cast for each play was composed of interested and talented people who were chosen by auditions. Along with directors and actors, stage crews were vital personnel. Crews prepared sets, applied make-up, and located props. Plays opened to the public highlighted summer activities.

In "Summer and Smoke," spinster Alma Winemiller (Rachel Harris) comforted her music student, Nellie (Melissa Spurgeon).

In "See How They Run" the question: "Is she dead?"

Bishop of Lax (John Cooley) tried to revive Miss Skillon (Joyce Saunderson), who was tipsy.

Plays Highlighted Summer Activities

Penelope contemplated the form of Clive.

Penelope tried to distract the visiting Bishop of Lax.

Forrington consoled his daughter Helen in "I Killed The Count."

Clinton proposed a toast in "Nude With A Violin."

Sebastian (Bob Miller), the butler, hovered over an incumbent form.

Chorus girl Renee flirted with Inspector Davidson in "I Killed The Count."

“Roll out those lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer”
—those days of vacations, relaxation, beach parties,—and summer school!

Spring quarter had drawn to an end, finals had been endured and most students were free for summer activities, vacations, and part-time jobs. Sandy Beaches and summer sun offered fun and excitement for many students.
For those who “just couldn’t get away”
from dear ‘ole BSTC, the pool, sundecks, and Student Center were popular.

“Show me the way to go home,” said Bill Wilson, finally packed, complete with floor lamp.

Fun in the sun called many to our beaches.

Summer Meant Sand, Sun, and Study.

Students admired the artistic work of a summer school visitor.

The Ball State pool was a cool facet of summer school recreation.

Despite pending class work, students still found time for recreation. Entertainment, refreshments, and fun were found by the students in the residence halls this summer in the form of picnics, trade parties, movies, and record hops. Those who preferred spending hot summer days and nights in air-conditioned comfort found a wide range of recreational activities at the Student Center. Euchre was a good study break activity.

A familiar sight of summer was parents and friends visiting our campus.

What's trump?!

Brick by brick work progressed on the multi-million dollar auditorium.

To some students summer school was a time for long and grueling hours spent with books in an effort to arrive at that longed-for graduation day as soon as possible. For other students summer school meant parties and good times with only an occasional glance at the books. Still others had returned to campus to work towards a master of arts degree. Thus in most areas of campus, an aura of scholastic and academic endeavor prevailed despite the tepid sun and soft blue skies that competed for the students' attention.

After classes, students went home to study.

Study breaks were datetimes for students who enjoyed warm fellowship and cool drinks.

There wasn't room for a compact car or a motorbike as students parked cars and unpacked.

Four lamps in the parking lot between Woodworth and Noyer Halls brightly illuminated the area.

Lamps on the campus added beauty and safety for nocturnal Ball Staters.

As students filed from class to class they observed several changes that were taking place on campus. Many a professor was accompanied by the drone of heavy machinery working on a parking lot or the clanking of hammers and wrenches as workmen installed new lighting facilities throughout campus.

"My next class is in the Men's Gym. Will ten minutes be enough?"

Summer School Equaled Study Plus Fun

Meeting and talking with friends was a happy task reserved for the Tally-Ho.

*"Kissed in front of Benny after hours"
A coed's excuse for lateness.*

What happened to the hordes of students waiting to scramble?

When cadets showed initiative, efforts were noted by ribbons.

Procedures and policies were put into effect from the top most brass through the lowest cadet.

SOC and Faculty United to Guide Frosh

Under the direction of faculty and the Student Orientation Corps, freshmen became acquainted with Ball State. Two-day sessions were allotted for admissions tests; Camp Crosley was a time for friendly SOC help; lectures completed the program.

Parents received first impressions of college life at summer orientation.

In the Camp Crosley Olympics was an event in which the freshman teams—Bunnies, Ferndocks, Lepers, and Ratfinks—vied for prizes for costumes.

Frosh at the "Crossroad"

As part of the summer orientation program, college officials and upperclassmen met with freshmen at Camp Crosley on Lake Tippecanoe to acquaint them with Ball State life.

Freshmen received guidance in adjusting to campus life and suggestions for overcoming problems. Camp Crosley also was a place for meeting new friends and a portion of the Ball State faculty and other personnel.

Freshmen sat around a fire to consider what goals they wanted to reach while attending Ball State.

Leisure Time Was Fun Time

With clear skies and fair weather, tennis courts were crowded.

To escape overwhelming heat students headed for the pool for a cool dip.

Spending summer on campus, students followed varied pastimes.

It was pleasurable to talk quietly with a special someone under the sun.

Soaking up the summer sunshine was an excellent way to attract a tan—and attention! More industrious students enjoyed doing odd jobs around campus.

Piecemeal studying and "just talking," students found the summer sun compulsively warm.

Warm Sun but Happy Graduates

Marking Ball State growth was the establishment of an autumn graduation.

Dr. Jerome Fallon noted that "Dr. Emens would have to discontinue giving diplomas unless the second ceremony were instituted."

Hoping to maintain the personal bestowment of degrees, Dr. Emens promoted the divided graduation.

Happiness and regret intermingled as graduates became alumni. Solemnity or exuberance later became surety.

Parents and friends stood and stretched after the passing out of diplomas in the August commencement.

FALL

Gentle, dusky days . . . calm, pure . . . discolored, fading trees
Reminiscent of harvest, animals laying away lavish stores
Clear, moonlit nights . . . autumnal meteors flashing into view
Turbid air . . . turbulent students returning to campus
Conflicting desires . . . Bookstore for supplies? Tallying?
A walk through leaves . . . gold, russet, taupe . . . crisply crunching
Botany students examining trees . . . learning to identify them
Stolen hours . . . homework waiting, socializing more appealing
Autumn-painting Jack Frost . . . "I'll be home for Thanksgiving."

School Began with Lessons in Load Toting

*Freshmen learned much their first day on campus.
Beginning campus hall life, Diana Rauser got her first lesson in the art of clothes toting.*

Moving-in day on campus found girls waiting in front of hall desks to receive instructions before tackling the task of unpacking.

Problems typified the beginning of school. How to fit clothes into closets which were too small was usually the biggest puzzle. An equally large enigma though was getting books, suitcases, and other articles stacked away in a room and still allowing a small amount of floor space. In some halls finding one's room was a problem. Writer's cramp plagued all Ball Staters during the opening of school for there were seemingly endless numbers of papers and cards to be filled out. These problems were solved and school progressed.

Enthusiastic freshmen learned yells during the jamboree.

The first major campus event of the fall was the annual freshman jamboree. West Campus provided the setting for this gala affair. Freshmen flocked to the jamboree to enjoy a delicious chicken or shrimp dinner, to get acquainted with their classmates, and to have fun. One of the traditional events of the evening was the pep session which tested lung power and promoted school spirit and enthusiasm among the new Ball Staters.

West campus grass provided a soft dinner seat.

A table was sometimes a dinner necessity.

Scanning bookstore bookshelves was a common activity.

Margaret Blessing smiled happily as she completed her purchases in a crowded bookstore.

Checking out was the goal for students in a crowded bookstore.

During the first days of school, the 9,000 students of Ball State were all crowding into the bookstore to purchase books. The result was mass confusion. With less crowded conditions, it would take only a few minutes to make purchases; but under the over-crowded beginning-of-school conditions, students were considered lucky if they got out of the bookstore within an hour. A student soon learned to make all of his purchases at the same time.

Tallying Had the Biggest Course Enrollment

Dirty dishes in the Tally marked students' return.

One course at Ball State was open to all students, and it was offered from 7:30 a.m. to 10:15 p.m. everyday. This course, Tallying, had the largest enrollment of any campus course. The course in Tallying had one main benefit: the classroom, the Tally, is the center of campus social activity. The strange part of this course was that habitual enrollees soon disappeared.

Students gathered in the Tally Ho to share a coke and some friendly conversation. The Tally was the center of campus social life during all seasons of the year. Rain, sleet, or snow— Tallying continues.

A meandering line of customers was efficiently handled by the servers.

The fish fry was attended by many Muncie residents, as well as Ball State students.

Tri-Sigmas and Sigma Chis Sponsored Jonah Fish Fry

Someone scored a bull's eye; Tim Hickey ended up dripping wet.

After weeks of planning by committees working under Trudy Galloway and Dave Bassett, Alpha Chi Omega and Theta Chi presented the Bowery Ball on September 27, 1963, in the Ballroom of the Student Center.

Ninety-nine cents was charged for admission.

During the depression, Chicagoans went to the Bowery for entertainment and dancing; the cost at that time was 99¢.

Two years ago the Alpha Chis and Theta Chis decided to revive the old tradition.

Phi Mu Alpha Symphonia provided music for the Bowery Ball.

Dancers willingly shared space in a crowded ballroom.

Although Ball State is a state school, not all students came from Indiana;
 thirty-five came from foreign countries to study here.
 Thailand, one of the 22 countries represented, sent six students.
 Aided by the director of International Student Programs
 Dr. Richard T. Alexander, Jr., foreign students also formed a club which enabled them to know each other.
 Students planned an International Festival.
 Displays featured country customs.

Yemen student showed a camel—his country's car!

Oriental exhibit was a busy place as Americans satisfied their Occidental curiosity.

Thirty-five Foreigners Studied at Ball State

Foreign punch, anyone?

"Let's all work together!"

"Ten-second pictures are wonderful!"

Pakistani explained wedding customs to avid listeners.

Cardinal gridmen stood ready to "get in there and fight" for a victory over arch rival Butler.

Cheerleaders Enliven Spark Students to Anticipation

The task of the cheerleaders
Ora Lee Simpson, Janice Agness,
Nancy Treesh, Sandy Holl, and Judy Carnoll was to instill in the students a feeling of pride in their team. Freshmen were taught pep songs, yells, and chants.
Pep rallies and the bonfire provided excitement which permeated the season.

"Heavenly Highlights" Ushered in Fall

Women living in residence halls and their dates danced under the stars at the AWRH Dance.

The Association of Women's Residence Halls is an organization designed to unify the women's residence halls.

AWRH brings residents together to discuss problems and programs.

Major social event of the year was the annual AWRH Dance. A semi-formal and free affair, held in the fall, it was the first campus dance of the year.

From the Woodworth dining area, "Heavenly Highlights" dancers went to Dehority lounge for refreshments.

Everyone went through the receiving line to meet the officers, chairmen, and guests of AWRH.

A punch hour was held in the Dehority lounge where dancers could refresh themselves.

Guests at the punch hour were treated to harp music while they relaxed.

To impress rushees, fraternities displayed trophies for athletics and scholarship.

Joy reigned the night of pledging. Sigma Theta pledges sang, making known their joy.

Fall Pledges Strengthened Fraternities

After being introduced at the record hop many pledges filtered down to the Tally, proud to display their pins and hats.

As Ball State students returned to school in the fall, Fall Rush was uppermost in the minds of many upperclassmen. Rush began when the men signed up for it; they then embarked on a two-week tour of fraternity houses and smokers. The moment of decision was reached when the men donned pledge pins of the fraternities of their choice and marched gaily to the record hop to announce those decisions to the campus.

Sharon Gustavel added her name to the "Festival of Fame" when she reigned as thirty-seventh Homecoming Queen. Her coronation took place after Friday activities which included freshman-sophomore games, freshmen snapping a losing streak. A bonfire pep rally warmed enthusiasm for the game before Sharon and her court were introduced. Members of Pi Phi Gussie's court were Norma Boyts, Marcia Levinson, Jane Alter, and Karen O'Brien.

"I'm so happy!" Sharon smiled.

Sorority sisters and friends congratulated beaming "Gussie."

Smiling court members joined Pi Phi "Gussie" on the Arts Building steps after the Homecoming coronation.

"Festival of Fame" Royalty Queen Sharon Gustavel

*Tri Sig's worked on their float, hoping it would
"Fly Wright To Victory."*

Sig Ep's were in the first phrase of production, building the basic wooden frame.

An AO Pi hoped the float would get the judges' checkered flag.

Sigma Theta men considered building a float—serious!

After weeks of planning and preparation, the earnestness of intensive efforts could be seen in final products, the floats. Providing a colorful aspect for Homecoming, the floats were judged in three divisions: fraternity, sorority, and independent. The Sigma Chi's and Alpha Chi's walked away with honors and trophies for the Greeks.

For the first time at Ball State Homecoming, judging of residence hall decorations was made in toto rather than judging men's and women's halls separately as had been done. Klipple and Howick decorated their halls around the theme: "Stump 'Em!" The winning decorations featured legendary Paul Bunyan and Babe, the famous Blue Ox.

"Mobaize," Captain Ahab sitting in the whale's mouth, won first place for the Alpha Chi's.

"Homecoming parade and new outfits" sighed Delta Sigma Theta's.

Paul Bunyan Won Dorm Decorations

Pi Phi's won second place with their depiction of the guillotine death of Marie Antoinette.

Pluto slapped away fleas on the Sigma Kappa float.

Theta Chi Sycamore Preserves!

Participants Provided Colorful Parade

Homecoming parade, composed of a wide and colorful range of floats, was one of the highlights of Homecoming weekend. Students, alums, parents, and Muncie residents lined the streets along the parade route to view the gaily decorated floats, hear the band, and admire the sorority girls in their 1963 Homecoming outfits.

"Parades sure are 'thunthin, aren't they?"

A majorette twirled in the parade.

Marching Mademoiselles, led by a Marching Monark added precision and color to the parade.

Elliot Hall men decorated their hall for Homecoming.

Rogers Hall women provided a colorful display for Homecoming

Baker and Williams Halls combined forces to create a clever scene.

Halfback Jim Todd was tackled by a Sycamore after gaining a first down.

Cardinal fans saw the Ball State gridiron squad beat the Indiana State Sycamores, 15—7. Point scoring was close all the way, but Coach Louthen's eleven were on top when the final gun sounded. Homecoming was the first time the Cardinals had cut down their old rival, the Sycamores, in four years. Halftime ceremonies consisted of the presentation of the queen and her court and entertainment provided by the Ball State Marching Band.

"Barber . . ." Presented Without a Nick

"The Barber of Seville," a four act play, was directed by Mr. Kent Gallagher. Technical director was Gilbert Bloom; stage designer was Thomas Connelly. Sets for the play were reproductions of those used in Beaumarchais' eighteenth century production. The play evolved around lovers' plans to overcome romantic obstacles.

"Don't let Bartholo get this!"

Count Almaviva pledged his love to Rosine.

Prince Hall and two comrades enjoyed the exaggerations of Falstaff, subject of many jokes.

Shakespeare's "Henry IV, Part I" with the humor of Falstaff, attracted large audiences as the Canadian Players returned to campus for the fourth consecutive season in the fall. Both matinee and evening performances surged with students, faculty, and public, filling the Assembly Hall to the walls. The company of featured actors from Canada's Stratford Festival took their play on tour of Canada and twenty-five American States after their appearance at Ball State.

Reformed Hal made plans with colleague.

Debates between Hal and Falstaff were mirthful.

Memories of Benny, Student Center, . . .

As men and health center moved to new quarters, Ball Gym lost aura of activity.

Ad Building personnel coordinate academic activities.

Science Building is a familiar campus landmark, being one of the first buildings on campus.

A winged statue of a woman, her hand extended distributing jewels, symbolizes the spirit of giving. Beneficence was dedicated in 1937 to the memory of the Ball brothers. "Benny" now gives girls the distinctive name "coed" if they are kissed in her sight.

Jim Hatcher, Dave Wilson, Jane Dunn, and Carol Buzolits planned activities for 1500 Greeks.

Mr. William P. Givens shared his views of college and community cooperation at the Greek Week Banquet.

"It's fun to be a Greek" was proclaimed from November 4 through November 8. The first day found the Greeks wearing their sorority outfits and fraternity blazers on campus. That evening the Greeks met en masse in front of the Arts Building terrace. The importance of Greek unification was stressed. Mr. William P. Givens, at Greek Week Banquet, enunciated attitudes toward the Greek system.

Six hundred students joined together in Cardinal Hall for the Greek Week Banquet.

"It's Fun To Be a Greek"

Fellowship and favorite songs were features of the Greek "Fireside Sing."

Delta Zetas sang "Sunshine and Shadows."

Greek Week was climaxed by the annual Greek sing on West Campus. Each organization presented two songs to the group, and Greeks joined in several songs. After the Sing, the Greek Trade Party featuring the Art Van Damne quintet was held.

Steve Guidone led the Greeks in group songs.

Unity in the Greek system was exemplified by exchanging songs and smiles.

Chi O's and Sig Ep's planned Co-Ed Ball.

AOPi and Sig Tau trade party had a serious moment.

Trade parties, teas, dances, serenades, and retreats were varied activities enjoyed by Greeks. Greeks also furnished information on pledging—fraternities during rush parties and sororities through their program “Preview of Sorority Life.” Suite redecorations, ground breakings, additions to houses, or new fraternity houses kept Greeks busy. State Day conventions, rummage sales, workshops, work sessions, walk-outs, and philanthropic projects were Greek supported. Projects included parties for the physically handicapped, orphans, and the aged; other projects were sponsored for local and regional communities.

Lambda Chi Alpha men serenaded, singing, "Crescent Girl."

Sigma Kappa enjoyed a tea in their suite.

Lucina, the oldest women's residence hall, is located near the center of campus.

Fall featured varied activities as the new coeducational dorms and the older dorms partook of numerous residence hall and campus events and programs. Many halls exchanged parties with other halls and groups from other schools. Dorms provided hall government, Campus Chesters, and Fall Carnival booths. In lounges, people enjoyed records, a game of cards or ping pong, or favorite television programs.

A familiar drive near Woodworth Halls leads to the new dorms.

Firedrills were common. "Checkers" made sure none was missing.

Athletes moved onto Noyer lawn.

Halls Provided "New Way of Life"

"Ping pong, anyone?"

Elliott, oldest men's hall, instituted many traditions.

Dorm living, to new collegians, was a new way of life. Students became residents and participants in a "human relations laboratory." Members of hall families must learn to appreciate and understand the other members of their families. Halls provided the necessary items for "home away from home"—sewing, laundry, concessions, kitchens, and study lounges. Hall residents evinced happiness and gaiety.

ICPA Flew to New York City

While most students were enthralled by the pomp and glory of Homecoming, fourteen Ball State students were studying newspaper and yearbook concepts in groups sponsored by the Associated Collegiate Press. Dr. Louis Ingelhart made travel arrangements for Indiana delegates who flew from Indianapolis to the convention city, New York. At one meeting, The Collegiate Journalist, a new Alpha Phi Gamma publication was unveiled by the editor Dario Politella, "Orient" adviser.

"Let's go, advisers!" "Where's the driver?"

Ellen Lockwood didn't have her purse weighed.

"Hello, New York!" Delegates arrived in the Big City.

When not attending various newspaper and yearbook workshops for the exchange of ideas with college journalists from other colleges, delegates visited many of New York's great tourist attractions. The Bowery, Chinatown, Wall Street, Greenwich Village, and Fifth Avenue were the locales for investigation any hour of the day or night; the city never slept.

Delegates also saw the famous symbol of freedom: the Statue of Liberty.

Communication in the world today was stressed at the banquet, ending the convention.

The Rockefeller Center statue welcomed students and skaters.

Greenwich Village was popular. Tours or subways—everyone saw the Village.

Sondra Cain sighed, "I loved New York, but it's great to be home!"

Fall Carnival . . . Fun and Frolic

Campus Chester Tim Hickey, sponsored by Rogers Hall, awaited prospective contributors at the scramble light.

Young man collected Pi Phi kiss from Bev Hedges.

Irma La Douce (Lucy Guard) accepted donations in the Tally.

"Throw a pie at an A O Pi!" People did.

"Who won?" The mouse made his choice at the Lambda Chi booth.

"Which Gamma Theta is wearing the garter?" men queried.

Dr. Margaret Knuepple got soaked at the Religious Council booth.

Sticky hands and sugared face— but what would a carnival be without cotton candy?

Construction drew to an end as the workman put the final touches on the College Community Auditorium.

WBST's 162.5-foot radio tower was a reminder that BSTC is growing ever upward.

Located between the English and Music Buildings the new auditorium, completed in the spring, was named in honor of John R. Emens, president of Ball State, in appreciation of eighteen years of leadership and service. The new auditorium with a seating capacity of 3600 will serve as a cultural center not only for the students of Ball State but also for the citizens of Muncie. The auditorium is large enough to accommodate a symphony orchestra, opera or ballet company, or a large convention.

Center of Culture . . . the New Auditorium

The pillars of white stone set off the red brick designs on the College Community Auditorium.

Construction of the balcony required a great deal of mass scaffolding.

By next year these halls will be filled with the noise of students.

Carolyn Martin, Dave Wilson, Don Peyton, Jim Dick, and Judy Beaver discussed combining senior convo and baccalaureate.

Upper-class officers were elected in the spring while freshmen elected their officers in the fall after they had an opportunity to meet classmates. The presidents preside at all class meetings and represent their classes in Student Senate. Minutes of class meetings are recorded by the secretaries. Treasurers keep finance books; Senators represent classes at Senate meetings.

Arlene Beck, Dave Hoyt, Jane Munger, Ty Berry, and Sharon Gustavel discussed sophomore plans.

*Tim Hickey, continually asked,
"What's next on the agenda?"*

Senators sent for advisors to aid in deciding motions on the floor.

Each campus organization was represented by senators at the Senate meetings each Thursday.

Onlookers waited to bring their messages.

Disagreement among Senators was resolved as discussion and reevaluation led to compromise.

Student Senate is the governing body of the Student Association; the president of the student body serves as leader of the Senate. Members of the Senate with voting rights are the five officers of the Student Association, representatives of the four classes, and representatives of organizations. Senate decides the official student view on topics of concern and quandary. This view is presented to Faculty Senate which has final authority on many matters concerning Ball State. Senators discussed lengthening weekend library hours.

The Center Arcade was a convenient place to meet friends and to purchase items, like the Directory.

Student Center . . . Information Center

L. A. Pittenger Student Center was dedicated on November 30, 1952. In September, 1961, an annex to the original edifice was completed. Indiana tax dollars were not used in erecting and decorating the Center. Instead, sources, such as student fees and alumni gifts, provided building funds. Although most Center activities involve Ball State students, the Center is also open to serve public needs, both educational and recreational. Campus groups and organizations often choose the Center as the locale for dances, films, and recreational leagues.

Barbershop and Pool Cue Balls

Ball State men patronized the Barbershop, especially when they needed a quick trim. When they were cued in properly, billiards was a thrilling and thoughtful game.

Pool and Billiard tables provided relaxation for Ball Staters who wanted to polish their game.

Sixteen bowling lanes in the basement of the Student Center provided facilities for college classes and recreation for those who enjoy bowling.

WBST Planned Television Facilities

Broadcasting from studios in the English Building, WBST programmed sports events, music, and news. Enlarging facilities and expanding into television were planned by WBST, a student radio station.

Members of WBST prepared copy for broadcasting after the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

Al Rent, program director, strung a power cable to join a recorder to the telephone.

Students massed before the teletype window to keep informed on news after the President's death.

As Phil Reasoner, Dr. Robert Gwyn, and Dr. William Tomlinson observed carefully, first reports of news happenings came over the teletype.

Cardinals Posted a Second Winning Season

Under the direction of head coach Ray Louthen, the Ball State Cardinals posted their second winning season in a row with a 5—3—0 record. In ICC competition, the Cardinals had a 4—2—0 record to finish second in the conference—two games behind Butler.

The gridders started their season by blanking a strong Eastern Michigan squad, 14—0. The Cardinals traveled to Butler where a spirited Bulldog team handed the squad its first conference defeat by a score of 13—0; Ball State retained possession of the traditional paint brush. The squad got their offense rolling again and bounced back to defeat the DePauw Tigers, 14—0, in another conference tilt. A strong, unrelenting defense crushed the St. Joseph's Pumas, 23—0.

At Homecoming a record crowd estimated at 11,000 was on hand to watch a spirited Cardinal team defeat the Indiana State Sycamores, 15—7.

The following week scoring ran wild as the Crusaders of Valparaiso handed the Cardinals their second conference defeat by 48—40.

Trying to find a loophole in the Indiana State defense, the Ball State coaches keep in constant contact with the spotters stationed high above the playing field in the press tower.

A host of Indiana State Sycamores wrestle Merv Rettenmund to the ground after Merv gained seven yards for a valuable first down in the Homecoming game.

The courageous cheerleaders tried to keep the crowd's enthusiasm up as the Ball State Carnivals played their final home game against the Purple Aces of Evansville on a miserable, cold, snowy afternoon.

Ball State Student Guy Johnson broadcast the game between the Indiana State Sycamores and the Cards over the college's own radio station, WBST, for the first time in history.

After an impressive half-time show at Homecoming by the Ball State Band, the Cardettes relaxed on the sidelines.

The DePauw tiger proved to be of no avail as the Cardinals, with the assistance of hard-running sophomore fullback Dave Reeves and a faithful Ball State cheerleader, defeated the Tigers, 15—6.

The Cardinals clinched a second place in the ICC by trouncing the Purple Aces of Evansville, 27—7. For the last game of the season, the Cardinals traveled to Peoria, Illinois, where they were defeated, 28—14, by an enthusiastic Bradley squad. Ball State finished first in the conference in the rushing department with a total of 2118 yards. Junior halfback Merv Rettenmund, senior halfback John Walker, and sophomore fullback Dave Reeves were the main contributors to this total rushing offense with 635 yards, 397 yards, and 361 yards, respectively. Rettenmund's total yardage set a new school record for a single season. Dave Reeves, Ball State's leading scorer, and Merv Rettenmund were both elected to the all-ICC first team, while Ted Huber, Larry Hamell, Dave Meek, Norm Troth, and Steve Psikula were selected for the second team.

The intramural golf tournament was held for the first time at the new Crestview Municipal Course. Led by low man Bob Sack, who shot a fine 68, the Sig Ep Steins walked away with the tournament with a team total of 303. Other members of the team and their scores were: John McNaughton—75; Bob Lesman—78; and Pete Poorman—82.

The Lambda Chi Cougars came back after losing two games during the regular season to win both the fraternity league and the all-school football championship. With a fast backfield and good offensive ends, the Cougars either ran around their opponents or passed over their heads. Williams' Birdies and the Chickens won their respective leagues.

Golf, Football and Soccer Highlight Men's

An end run was executed for yardage gain.

Will it be a completion or interception?

A spirited Lambda Chi Alpha squad used a fast backfield and a strong defense to win the all-school championship.

Play was fast and furious as the soccer teams battled back and forth on the intramural fields. With teamwork, depth, and speed on the front line, the Theta Chi Oxes defeated the Lambda Chi Cougars, 1—0, for the fraternity championship. The Oxes went on to defeat the Wagoner Bootleggers, 2—1, for the all-school championship.

Intramurals

All was tense and quite as the defense dug in to stop a determined offense from scoring

Raun MacKinnon, a lovely nineteen-year-old blonde, captivated the audience with her pleasant mannerism and her superb abilities in both singing and playing tenor guitar.

BSTC First Hootenanny

The rafters rang with enthusiasm when the Student Center Governing Board and the Circle K answered the demands of the new campus craze by taking the initiative to sponsor the first Ball State hootenanny. The performers—The Old Fort Twenty Three, Bob Gibson, Josh White, Jr., The Wayfarers, and Raun MacKinnon—were given a very warm reception.

Sig Tau Gamma's Concert Headlined by "Jay and the Americans" and "The Invincibles"

Jazz, pop music, authentic folk songs, and comedy filled the new gymnasium as the Sig Taus presented their annual concert. Pre-show entertainment was presented by "The Invincibles," a local student group consisting of Jack Hamilton, Doug Messick, Richard Burman, and Steve Nephew. The so-called amateurs gave a very professional and enjoyable performance. Next to come on stage was Merle and his Jazz Stars who were a traveling group with Jay and the Americans. Consisting of Lester Merle on drums, Ron Palumbo on bass, Pat Dursey on piano, and J.R. Montross on sax, they gave an inspirational show for the jazz fans in the audience. Finally the feature attraction, Jay and the Americans, appeared on the stage and began presenting their wide repertoire of songs—pop hits, ballads, and folk songs. The talented group was composed of Jay, the lead singer; Sandy, a graduate of music; Marty, the musical conductor; Kenny, the bass singer; and Howie, the romantic lead. Their show was one of the best concerts ever presented.

A Tribute to President John F. Kennedy

Ball State shared the grief of the entire nation and the world as the news of President John F. Kennedy assassination came in over TV, radio, and the teletype. The entire campus seemed to be stunned and unwilling to accept the facts.

A lone, solitary figure shielded his eyes from the bright sun as he stepped from the plane and found, much to his delight, an equally warm and radiant reception from a throng of Dallas Texans. From his first few steps down the stairs, the wheels and gears of destiny were set into motion for the 35th President of the United States, John Fitzgerald Kennedy. After a few minutes of greeting at the airport, the President went to his limousine to join the motorcade which carried him through downtown Dallas. A warm, exuberant crowd cheered and waved as the President went by. At 12:34 three shots rang out from an assassin's rifle and in a mere six seconds the sun seemed to dim—John F. Kennedy had given his life to his nation.

"Ask not what your country can do for you, but ask what you can do for your country." These immortal words of John Kennedy will live through the ages, inspiring young people in devotion to their country.

Being able to study under varying conditions and at any time seemed to be one way to insure a 4.0 grade average.

After Thanksgiving, students returned to campus and began winter course work. Enthusiasm for study dwindled as anticipation of Christmas vacation grew. Although they knew that grades might be permanently lowered, students had difficulty concentrating early in the quarter and put many projects off "just one more day."

Not everyone HAS to study . . .

Mixing a dash of gal with studying made bookwork more pleasurable. Guys were glad to use the recipe often.

*Name, local address, home address . . .
Registration is a necessary part of college!*

WINTER

Weak, wan, dejected days . . . bare branches coldly haloed frost
Boisterous, sweeping winds . . . moaning, sighing . . . piercing cold
Students moving quickly . . . coldly withdrawing, bent by the wind
Uncertain sunrays in a pallid sky . . . deep-tinged dampness . . .
Everyone seeming sullen and sad . . . loathing life, sighing gloomily
Occasionally a voice, muffled . . . rising from a mountain of coat
Mentioning and describing weather . . . abundant snow, slush, sleet
Some bright days . . . but winter yet reigns over exhausted campus
Spring-herald Groundhog . . . "Hope you don't cast a shadow!"

Tom and Dick Smothers, nationally known as the Smothers Brothers presented a campus concert in the new Men's Gymnasium last February. Singing folk songs, they added much dialogue and jokes with local flavor "dug" by the fans.

"Snow! Snow! Snow! Won't it ever go away?" Students and Muncie residents grumbled coldly.

During winter 1963-64, Muncie was blanketed by snow. Wind-blown drifts piled up almost as fast as removal equipment cleared the walks. Trudging to classes through knee-deep snow was drudgery for students, but snowball fights with Burriss students after school was out were exhilarating. Glaringly clean for days, the campus lost its crisp, white look when the snow melted, bringing mud and water to the campus scene.

The street department cleaned the streets, but left the driver of this car stranded.

Snow Created Jeweled Fantasy of White

Center campus became a land of fantasy with the sun shining on the snow, making it look like piles of diamonds.

The newly-lighted campus was further highlighted by the lighted Ad Building on the new-fallen snow.

During daylight hours, dazzling snow brightened everything it shone against.

An impersonal, cool touch was added by the snow. Although it was cold, the glaring snow made life seem brighter in the winter. People speeded their walking pace, briskly crossing campus and cutting through buildings in order to get warm. Weather beat "Cleopatra" at the polls as main topic of conversation. Although many complaints were heard and wishes for a coming spring were uttered, several people seemed to relish the opportunities for winter sports.

Practical coeds wore slacks and boots to classes to ward off the cold.

Bold Students Brave Snow

Gradually the snow melted; and walkways became clear.

Symbols of Christmas Come to Dorms

A jolly Mr. Snowman smiled on the residents and guests of Woodworth Halls.

"Let's all trim the Christmas tree!" sang the women of Woodworth as they hung shimmering tinsel.

Tinsel, evergreen branches, and bright ornaments are symbols and signals of the magic season, Christmas. Annually, Ball State students gather to decorate their rooms, their halls, and their campus in the spirit of Yuletide. This year, everyone eagerly prepared for the season, although the weather was rather warm and no snow was in evidence.

Santa vacated his chair in the Tally while he gave instruction to his elves.

Christmas magic changed walls to windows; students, to elves.

Students Said Merry Christmas at Parties

Men and women took time to refresh themselves between Christmas party games.

Men in Noyer practiced good cocducation rules by helping to decorate for Christmas.

During their visit, the orphans helped the women of Lucina string popcorn for the tree.

A meal in a college dorm was a source of excitement for the youngsters.

Some children did not want to leave; Lucina women hated to say goodbye.

Children of the Delaware County Children's Home were adopted by Lucina Hall women for one day. A party was given for the youngsters; each resident undertook to make one child happy. Helping the residents hang Christmas greens and decorate for the Yuletide season, the children passed an enjoyable afternoon. After dinner in the Dining Service, the children joined the women at the fireplace where they sang carols. Santa Claus appeared to distribute gifts purchased for the children by the residents. The children returned to the Home with memories of Lucina kindness.

Sponsored by Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, Dave Wilson was named "Knight to Remember" and was congratulated by president Judy Nieman of Chi Omega.

In accordance with tradition, escorts of coeds paused as judges evaluated their ladies' handiwork.

A Knight Was Remembered

In the spirit of leap year, Ball State women asked their favorite men to the Coed Ball. Having made dates for the ball, the women set about to create original corsages.

After properly affixing the works of abstract art to the lapels of their escorts' jackets, the women triumphantly entered a medieval castle, designed by Chi Omega and Sigma Phi Epsilon. The knights and ladies elected Dave Wilson reigning monarch; Dave smiled on his adoring subjects and joined them in dancing to the music of Larry Dickson.

"Oh, I hope that all of you are happy!" Sue wished silently. A panorama of color and music was memorized.

Smiling happily at the close of her reign, Gerri Pasko prepared a jeweled crown for her successor Sue Watson of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Santa Claus was among the absentees in the winter wonderland beautifully ruled by Sue Watson; he would have enjoyed her happiness when it was announced she was Miss Junior Personality, 1963.

Sue held court in a tableau entitled "Christmas Prelude" by the co-sponsors, the junior class and the Student Center Governing Board. Loyal voters were glad to receive Sue's spontaneous smiles.

Dancing to the music of Kai Winding, couples dreamed of a Christmas as white as the tree they were encircling.

"Easy Ed" Butler displayed his favorite hook shot against the Little Giants of Wabash.

Main attraction of the freshman season was the battle between Ball State and Cincinnati.

Ron Latham shot a fade away jump shot against the Purple Aces of Evansville for a well-earned two points.

Breaking away to the free throw line, Curt Ervin canned an easy two points for the Cardinal cause.

The Ball State Cardinals tied Butler University for second place in the ICC just behind Evansville. The Cardinals posted their best overall season record of the past few years as they racked up a 17—6 record with an 8—3 record in conference play.

Three of these overall defeats went to top ranked college teams.

On defeat, the season's opener, went to the nation's number two ranked team, Michigan. The other defeats went to the Card's conference foes, the Purple Aces of Evansville, who were ranked first in the nation in the small college ranks. The Cards were honored by being invited to the NCAA tournament.

In registering for rush, Ball State Coeds signed up for three very exciting weeks of decision.

Marked by enthusiasm and excitement formal rush began with teas.

A Tri Sigma woman had the opportunity to greet rushees at the tea.

Rush Begins with Registration

Fraternity registration marked the beginning of smokers, parties, and decisions.

Rush was a major facet of campus life, because fraternity rush took place twice during the year and many sororities held both formal and open rush sessions. Upperclassmen were able to take part in fall rush; rush for all men was held in January.

After grades came out in January, eligible and interested coeds attended the first round of sorority meetings, a weekend of teas for everyone. Sorority women and rushees became acquainted with one another, rushees got a glimpse of Greek life.

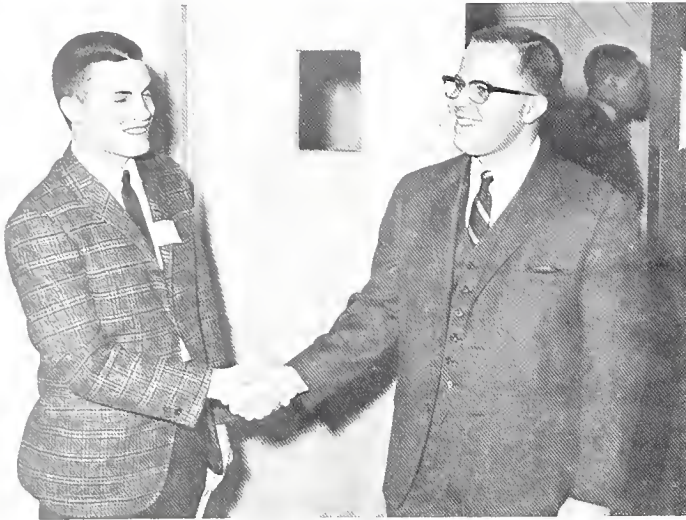

From the teas and smokers through the parties, rushees were aware of the decision they must make, which group they would pledge.

PiPhi's prepared to answer rushee questions about sorority life.

Smokers Kick Off Rush

Rushee Toby Shimer received a greeting and welcoming handshake at the Sig Tau Smoker.

As in the past, fraternity smoker attendance was by invitation only; rushees were urged to attend all smokers to which they were invited. Smoker programs featured information, supplemented by entertainment. Fraternities introduced guest speakers and distributed brochures; rushees were also interested in how much it would cost to become members of Ball State fraternities.

Topics of conversation ranged from information on pledgeship and fraternities to Greek life in general at the Theta Xi Smoker.

Dinner was enjoyed by the rushees; fraternities enjoyed sharing a meal with them.

Relaxing after the meal, rushee and brothers listened to the guest speaker whose topic was pledgship and Greek life.

In addition to the smokers, fraternities planned coffee and coke hours, rush parties, hayrides, and special meals for the men. Underlying every activity was the desire of the men to become better acquainted; rushees were asked to consider their decision carefully. Maintaining themselves as worthy members of any fraternity, rushees made the decisions that made them permanent members of the Greek system at Ball State.

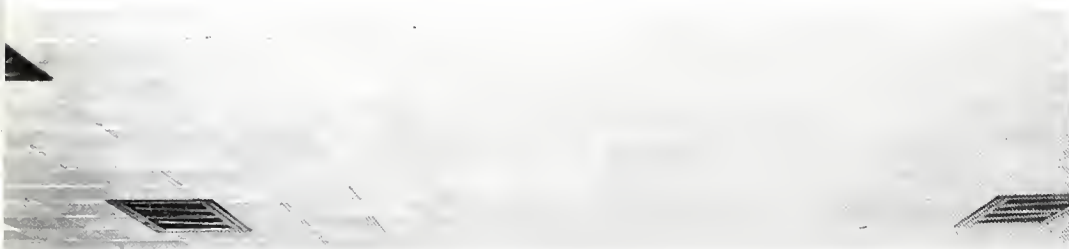

The second round of sorority rush was a weekend of costume parties at which rushees were entertained by sorority women. As many as five invitations to parties could be accepted. There followed an exciting time of creating costumes appropriate to each theme. At the party, rushees were entertained with skits, songs, and refreshments. Some sororities chose to explain their organization and to show rushees their trophies and scrapbooks.

Sorority rush, through Tally coke dates, began in the fall and ended in formal rush.

Pretty "Southern Belle" rushees were entertained by Sigma Sigma Sigma's sorority songs.

Dressed as little girls, rushees entered lollipop land.

Gamma Theta women welcomed rushees to a Bavarian Holiday.

Second Round Was Costume Parties

Alpha Omicron Pi pledges fulfilled pledgship requirements by delivering warm, love-filled "Singing Valentines!"

Following smokers and parties. Many hours were spent in consideration before decisions were announced. During this time Silence was observed by Greeks and rushees; none was allowed to communicate, even in classes. Silence was broken at the moment when sororities held their mass meetings and bids were received by the fraternities. Pledges ran to suites and houses where they were met by actives and introduced as Greeks.

Pledges found the Tally was filled with pledge-book signers.

Gaiety and jubilee mounted in the Tally as pledges waited for more Greeks.

Theta Chi pledges joined their mascot in singing and shouting joy.

Pledge Night Arrives

Lambda Chi pledges were directed by Jack LeBeau at the Tally. A requirement of pledging was learning Greek songs.

Bev Hedges smiled as she received an ovation from members of the Blue Key Sweetheart Court.

Blue Key Sweetheart this year was a product of Muncie, Bevevry Hedges, Ball State sophomore. Nominated by Theta Chi. Bev held court with seven other girls nominated by campus men's organizations. Elliott Hall sponsored Judy Burnam; Sigma Chi, Marcia Cline; Phi Sigma Epsilon, Gwen Durflinger; Theta Xi, Jane Ferrill; Sigma Phi Epsilon, Marsha Hynes; Lambda Chi Alpha, Janet Mullen; and Sigma Tau Gamma sponsored Karen Perkins.

President Emens placed the crown on Bev's head.

Winter Queens Bev Hedges, Judy Nieman

Radiate Charm

Judy Nieman, sponsored by Sigma Chi, reigned as Honorary Colonel at the annual Military Ball. "Colonial Reminiscence" set the style for long dresses at this year's ball.

Lt. Col. William Bright, head of the Air Force ROTC program, crowned Judy and presented her a dozen red roses; BeeJee Deiser, 1963 Honorary Colonel assisted.

The five finalists were chosen from a group of 23 coeds.

The girls and their sponsoring groups were Mary Coar, Alpha Omicron Pi; Linda Mast, Alpha Chi Omega; Carolyn Gilmer, Sigma Sigma Sigma; and Caryl Sedgwick, Sigma Tau Gamma.

Wrapped in her queenly cape, Honorary Colonel Judy Nieman drew her maids around her for an official portrait. Wearing arm corsages were Mary Coar, Linda Mast, Carolyn Gilmer, and Caryl Sedgwick.

"Surprised, Miss Colonel?"

BS Players Set

"Separate Tables" was produced by the Ball State Theatre in January. Set in an English hotel, the story is told in two plays. The first is about a divorcée who follows her ex-husband to the hotel to regain his love, but finds someone else who loves him. In the second play, Mrs. Railton Bell endeavors to keep Major Pollock out of the hotel, but the other guests allow him to stay.

Separate Tables

Mrs. Railton-Bell, Sibyl's busybody mother, played by Carole Langowski, is getting bawled out by Miss Meacham, played by Melissa Spurgeon. Mrs. Railton-Bell was the self-appointed leader of the hotel society in the play, "Separate Tables."

Smothers Brothers Come to Campus

The Smothers Brothers Concert was second in a series of concerts sponsored by the Student Center Governing Board. The Brothers sang a repertoire of folk and ethnic songs, adding their individual brand of humor. Dick acted as straight man for brother Tom who proved himself master of the pun. One of his favorite tricks was to use complex words that began in sounds identical with pun words. Tom drew pity from the audience when brother Dick bawled him out for going off on a tangent. The students roared when the Brothers remarked about the skyscrapers of Muncie, nearly four stories tall!

The Smothers Brothers caused a sensation on the Ball State Campus. Students filled the new gymnasium almost to capacity.

In the dance version of "Frankie and Johnnie," played by Gail Lowe and Larry Life, the sheriff, Jim Benton, took the gun away from Frankie after she shot Johnnie. Nelly Bly, played by Carole Claypool, was the dancehall girl with Johnny before he was shot.

Walter Kern's musical, "Sing Out, Sweet Land," was presented in the Little Theatre. Barnaby Goodchild was the central character, who came singing through history. After being kicked out of Jamestown for singing and dancing, he returned to pioneer days, the Civil War, the Gay Nineties, Roaring Twenties, and present day, 1964 America.

Parson Killjoy (Jim Benton) condemned Barnaby (Wayne Shrubsall) for singing. Priscilla (Linda Rent) was Barnaby's young friend.

Sing Out, Sweet Land!

Dancers (front row) were Joyce Morrison, Pat Regnier, and Carole Claypool. Some singers were Jim Barrett, Chris Moore, Bob Taylor, and Wayne Shrubsall.

Big Ed Butler showed the jumping ability that enabled him to lead the ICC in rebounding as he soared high into the air.

Cards Invited to NCAA Tournament

Freshman B-Baller Ed Sherry tried a long one-handed jump shot against a strong Cincinnati squad.

In the annual Varsity-Freshman game, Dave Huth found it difficult to get any shot away from under the boards.

Congratulations to Coach Jim Hinga of Ball State who was named the coach-of-the-year in the ICC and to Ed Butler who was named the ICC's most valuable player! The Cards, with Ed Butler, John Lee, Stan Neal, Ron Galloway, Ron Latham, Dick Reedy, and Bob Heady, led the conference in both field goal and free throw percentages. Ed Butler and John Lee were named to the first ICC team while junior Stan Neal was placed on the second team. Ron Latham received honorable mention from the ICC.

Dick Reedy led an effective fast break down the court to score an easy layup for the Cardinal cause.

The referees got a well-deserved rest as the quarter ended and the action on the floor came to a halt.

Larry Reedy found himself in a difficult situation as he struggled to regain possession of the ball.

Ball State Butterflymen were trying hard to catch their fleet opponents. The Cards found a steady performer, in this event, in team captain, senior Gary Tucker.

The need for a quick start is almost as necessary to a swimmer as knowing how to dribble is to a basketball player. Cardinals and opponents had mastered this skill and were putting it to use.

Another fine performance! Perry Schlie started to open up in the final portion of his diving exhibition.

Perry Schlie completed a full gainer with a half twist. Schlie showed much improvement this year and steadily became a performer for the Cards.

Matmen Come on Strong

Ball State's swimming forces and grapplers showed increasing ability as the season progressed. Ball State splashers improved several performance times.

Cardinal matmen started slowly but a surge at the end of the campaign enabled them to take second in the conference meet. Indiana State had seven of eight men from last year's winning squad returning; such strength earned them seven first places. Bill Fisher, won a first place for the Cards while Sherman Scott, Bob Ashman, and John Weaver were in second positions; Ray Bayer and Mike Otis helped the Cardinals in the scoring column by taking third places.

A Ball State grappler was endeavoring to regain the lead over an unknown opponent.

Jim Gore executed a lengthy performance on the trampoline as his teammates stood by to give assistance in case of a mishap.

Robert Miller performed on the side horse.

Coach Robert Weiss had a disastrous season; the gymnastics team finished the season by beating Eastern Michigan 57—54, their only victory. The overall season record was 1—14. Plagued by injuries—Jack Scherrick, senior, broke his hand during a tumbling stunt—the Cards, could not seem to pull off the big meets. At the time of his injury, Scherrick was leading the team with 76 points, including 6 firsts and 6 seconds. Bob Miller ended the season leading the team in total points earned while Jim Gore, Bob Gray, and Fred Welge were close behind. Underclassmen make next years' prospects look more prosperous and promising.

Gymnasts Have Full Season

Mike Smith performed a difficult maneuver on the high bar.

Great strength and very agile balance were combined together to make a successful routine run smoothly.

Card Gymnast did a precocious hand stand on the rings.

A defensive player tried to steal the ball from her opponent.

Women's Intramural Program provided recreational activities for women who developed skills through participation in activities and in a growing sense of sportsmanship.

The main activities for the women are soccer, field hockey, track, and field, swimming, basketball, volleyball, gymnastics, lacrosse, tennis, bowling, modern dance, softball, and badminton.

Ball control and sharp shooting led the Cardinals to a convincing victory over Anderson.

Ball State's intramural champions successfully controlled a tip away from the opposing Anderson College squad.

Coeds found the opportunity to get exercise so valuable for good health in such intramural sports as volleyball.

A Sport Offered for Every Man and Woman

Intramurals at Ball State gave every man, whether proficient in a sport or not, a chance to exercise and enter a tournament. The Wagoner Hall 7 Wonders rolled over the Black Key Bulls by a 41—32 score in the final game of the all school championship. In other intramural finals, Theta Chi's won the gymnastics in a close battle with the Sig Ep's and wrestling where the Sig Ep's also came in a close second. Evans Boys, of the Independent Major League, won the volleyball championship.

Excitement ran high as girls got competitive spirit during a game.

Dr. W. G. Pittenger, college physician, adjusted the otoscope for treatment of students.

Amelia T. Wood Health Center was opened February 5 and dedicated to Dr. Wood, former health center director.

Wood Health Center

Dedicated In Spring

A dream came true when the new Wood Health Center was opened for the use of Ball State students February 5, 1964. The two-story brick and stone edifice has facilities to serve thirty-two patients in the four-bed wards and four single-bed rooms. Designed by Hamilton and Graham, Muncie architects, working with Dr. Pittenger, the health center combined beauty with functionalism. A large reception room, eight small booths for examinations, drug rooms, and a physical therapy department were included in the first floor.

Ill students seemed to enjoy the facilities of the health center as much as the doctors and nurses who cared for them.

Mrs. Juanita Reynolds, nurse at the health center, was checking student files at the reception desk.

Miss Amelia T. Wood and Dr. W. G. Pittenger conversed about the center named in honor of her.

Assignments were checked before the speech contest began.

High Schoolers Hold Speech Meet

In the early spring, students from Ball State served as judges for the high school contests in speech. Delegates to the contest arrived in the morning from all over the State; two rounds of competition were held, and finalists were announced in the afternoon.

Mr. Bloom presented awards to the winners of individual events.

A high school student delivered his speech as judges listened.

Ugly Man Chosen

Theta Xi Ugly Man contestant Mick Haley was chosen most horrible of all in appearance by vote of campus coeds.

This year Gamma Theta sponsored the Ugly Man Contest, an annual success. Many of the rules were changed for the contest; time allotted was two days. Contestants were required to wear costumes and makeup for just one daytime period, presenting their talent in the Tally that same evening. Winner of the contest this year was Mick Haley, Angola junior. Mick was sponsored by his fraternity.

By the looks on the faces of some of the coeds in attendance at the jam session in the Tally-Ho, this ugly man was extremely terrifying as he gave his talent.

The Science Lecture series were held in both Assembly Hall and the ballroom of the Student Center and drew many of the top names in various areas of science.

Wendell M. Stanley, professor of virology and chairman of the department, University of California, was the opening speaker at the 1964 Science Lecture and Discussion Series held in February.

The series was planned by a committee of the science department including Dr. George Welker, Dr. Lowell Dillon, Dr. Malcom Hults, Dr. Newton Sprague, Dr. Robert Synovitz, and Dr. Robert Cooper, head of the department.

Students gathered to discuss the lectures.

Divisions of opinion were melded.

Warmer Days Brought Promises of Spring

Students responded to warm, end-of-winter days by congregating outside.

Spring Springs

Relaxation, meditation, and conversation set the mood for spring. The warm spring air provides an excellent background for chatting with friends and reflecting one's thoughts. With the coming of spring, a feeling of "Isn't it great to be alive?" pervades the air. No more bundlesome winter coats and mittens; sweaters and scarfs are the order of the day. Students soon discover that with spring also comes showers, but this doesn't seem to dampen their spirits any.

Students shed coats and parkas for sweaters and jackets as April comes into view. Umbrellas also become popular.

Both man and beast take time to relax, contemplate, and enjoy spring.

The Art Building steps are a frequented spot for students to chat with friends between classes.

SPRING

Rainy, umbrella days . . . the door of newness, freshness
Soft gales succeeding . . . kindly, sweetly touching

Winter at evening resuming breeze . . . cooling the morn
Truth, goodness, honor, harmony, love . . . increase in the sun

Students arising with the sun . . . returning its radiant glow

Walking, running, laughing . . . ease . . . alternate labor

Against the azure sky . . . lavender, mint, yellow, rose, pearl

People happy . . . Fort Lauderdale for Easter . . . everyone's dream

Sprouting plant . . . "I wonder when the lilac will bloom!"

The wonderful, wacky world of Ball State spring! Students burst into song, the campus is dotted with umbrellas, girls tease their hair to look like Dr. Zorba. It's that crazy, topsy-turvey time of the year.

Ball State produced its own copy of the Beatles!

Spring Brings Many

"It may be Spring, but my pictures won't develop by themselves!"

Singing, working, watching, sleeping, talking . . . the same old year-round activities perhaps, but spring weather seemed to add vigor and zest. People enjoyed increased vitality and energy as summer approached and winter made his long-awaited departure. Beatlemania hit campus; overnight there was a harvest of Beatle Bugs, some of whom were featured at the Playboy Penthouse. Taking photographs, entertaining with music, talking with friends, and sleeping when the mood of spring prevailed—students revealed a pre-vacation spirit.

Leisure Moments

The Work Must Go On

Just because the warm weather hits is no sign that "hitting the books" can cease. Students must keep slaving away on those studies whether the temperature is 20 or 120. True, of course, it's much more difficult to concentrate when one would much rather have a tennis racquet in hand than test tube!

Budding scientists laboriously work with test tubes and formulas in the science laboratory.

A coed goes over her script for that last minute reading before going on the air.

To buy a Directory or not to buy—that is the question for one Ball State student as three others study in the lounge.

Ball Memorial future nurses enjoy practicing on each other—the hard way, backwards!

"You Can't Beach Love"

In Variety Show

The combined efforts of Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Omicron Pi, and Theta Chi produced the winning act of this year's Variety Show; the act centered about the husband-hunting season in Atlantic City. The fourteenth Theta Xi Variety Show was held in the John R. Emens Auditorium. A capacity crowd of college students, Muncie residents, parents, and friends were entertained for three hours filled by five acts and the antics and witticisms of Roger Bartnick, emcee for the event.

When things began to look the worst, a fractured hip convinced "Maybell" that she can't beach love.

Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Omicron Pi, and Theta Chi sang their way to a first-place trophy.

"The Beach! The Beach!" A wonderful place to look for and catch a husband.

"Charleston" performed by Marilyn Riner and Steve Clippinger was a highlight of the runner-up act, "TV on Tap."

Third place winner "Nervous Spurs" showed the shaky marshall with his locked spurs.

Second place honors went to Chi Omega, Delta Zeta, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Sigma Theta for their act "TV on Tap," a take-off on popular programs. "Nervous Spurs" featuring a nervous marshal of the old west, was presented by Delta Chi, Alpha Sigma Tau, Sigma Chi Epsilon, and Sigma Kappa for third place honors and acclaim. Filler entertainment was presented by "The Old Fort 23" who sang several folk songs, the Rent brothers who sang and gave a comedy skit, and the Kappa Pickers, nine sorority sisters from Indiana University, who captivated the audience with a hillbilly band and folk songs.

"Zing! Boom! Aye!" presented by Alpha Sigma Alpha, Pi Beta Phi, Phi Sigma Epsilon, and Sigma Chi enthralled the audience.

The horse was the marshal's best friend.

Band readied for the ascent from the orchestra pit.

The golf team traveled to Coral Gables, Florida, for the Miami Invitational where they finished tenth out of an impressive field of nineteen. Led by Larry Jester who shot an average score of 76.7 and who had the team low with a score of 69, the Cardinals posted a season record of four wins and three losses.

Larry Jester looks on and Dave Libler tends the flag as Bob Lesman prepares to stroke in an all important birdie putt.

Perry Schlie went high in the air in an attempt to spike the ball across to the opponents.

V Ballers Hopes Are High

Earlham's defenders tried to form a blocking screen against Dennis Carpenter's smashing spike.

Carpenter of the Cardinals successfully blocked and returned an Earlham spike.

John Hemphill and Dick Huntoon run to get in shape for the season ahead.

Cindermen warm up by doing muscle stretching exercises before the meet.

Harold East uses a western roll as he successfully clears the high bar set at six feet even.

In their first official meet, the Eastern Illinois Relays, the Card's cindermen, although no team scores were kept, made a real good showing. In the process a pair of Ball State track and field records were set by two promising Cardinal athletes. Senior Jim McInerney broke his own record in the javelin of 198 feet, 10 inches with a toss of 213 feet, 4½ inches. Sophomore Kurt Eichorst broke the old record in the shot put as he made a heave of 50 feet, 8 inches. With such aid from the underclassmen on the squad the Cardinal's season looks very promising.

Tennis Team Is Well-Balanced

Bob Wagner practiced his serve before an important match.

Card racket man rushed to his left to handle an opponent's smash to his backhand.

The Card's Basemen posted an early season record of 4—1. Lead by the superb pitching of Wayne Schmitz and Bob Heady the Cards took a twin bill against Hanover. The following Tuesday the Cards gave up three unearned runs as Purdue defeated them 3—2. The Cardinals came back to win a double header against Taylor University.

The Card's first practice was chilly.

The Hanover catcher looked on as the Cards scored again.

Card pitcher posted another strikeout against Taylor.

A good throw from the shortstop reached first in time for another big out.

A good curve fooled the batter as he found out too late that the ball broke over the plate.

Baseball Season Is Successful

Pi Phi's, Lambda Chi's Take Honors in Spring Sing

Lambda Chi Alpha presented their interpretation of "Charlottetown" to win the men's trophy.

Tension mounted as TriSigs waited in line.

Pi Beta Phi sorority and Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity won top honors in the 1963 Spring Sing. Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha, music honoraries, sponsored the event. "Hey, Look Me Over," from the Broadway musical "Wildcat," was the song presented by Pi Phi's to capture the girls' trophy. The men of Lambda Chi chose "Charlottetown," a folk song of unknown authorship for their award. Alpha Omicron Pi placed second in the women's division with "Madame Jeannette." "Aura Lee" gave Delta Chi's second place for the men.

Representatives of Pi Beta Phi and Lambda Chi Alpha joyously accepted their first place trophies.

Alpha Chi entertained with "I've Got Rhythm!"

Women of Baker Hall participated in Spring Sing.

New Auditorium Opened in March

Ball State Teachers College and the Muncie community cooperatively built the John R. Emens College Community Auditorium. The new $2,975,000 building was previewed March 14 and 15 by its contributors when Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians presented "The Magic of Music."

The John R. Emens College Community auditorium was completed early in the Spring. It was a college and community project.

Interest mounted as the work on the new auditorium came to an end.

"The Valiant" Is Easter Play

"The Valiant," a one-act play by Holworthy Hall and Robert Middlemass, was presented at the Easter Convocation. The story, of a prisoner condemned to death for murder, was directed by Larry Life. The play was chosen for its appeal to all religious groups and denominations.

Appearing in the Easter Convo Play were Delos Williams as Father Daly, Jim Benton as Warden Holt, and Bob Lesmaan as the prisoner.

1964 Miss Ball State Carol Rinard Crowned by Miss America

Members of the 1964 Court posed with Marilyn Riner, 1963 Queen. Court included Joyce McCray, Karen Miller, Queen Carol Rinard, Sandy Zimmerman, and Jo Anne Shultz.

Carol smiled radiantly after being crowned Miss Ball State.

The 1964 Orient Pageant was highlighted by a visit from Donna Maye Axum, 1964 Miss America. Donna crowned Miss Carol Sue Rinard, Argos sophomore and member of Pi Beta Phi, Miss Orient—Ball State of 1964. In addition to the crown, Carol received a scholarship from Pepsi-Cola, a diamond cocktail ring from Harry Gaunt Jewelers, a scholarship grant to Patricia Stevens School, red roses, and a trophy. Dr. John Mark Johns acted as master of ceremonies for the Pageant held in the John R. Emens Auditorium. Marilyn Riner, 1963 Miss Ball State, narrated the swim suit and formal gown portion of the queen competition.

Miss America placed the crown on Carol's head, climaxing the whirl of Orient pageant activities.

Sandy Zimmerman watched intently the talent performance of one of the final candidates as she waited off-stage before performing the "Charleston" for the audience. Sandy, Muncie sophomore, sponsored by Pi Beta Phi, was first runner-up in the finals.

"Bourbon Street Beat" started off the monologue played by Jo Anne Shultz for her talent.

Admirable Traits Make a Queen

Blond, blue-eyed Jo Anne Shultz placed second runner-up. Jo Anne was sponsored by Chi Omega.

Karen Miller, Grabill freshman and Alpha Omicron Pi pledge, was sponsored by Lambda Chi Alpha.

Joyce McCray, Alpha Sigma Alpha, was fourth and sang a routine going from "Madame Butterfly" to the favorite "My Mama Done Told Me."

Sandy Zimmerman appeared before the judges in bathing suit competition wearing a white suit accented with gold fish on the front.

Kay Sommers, LaPorte freshman, got moral support backstage from a friend before going out for the bathing suit competition.

Karen, third runner-up, sang "Much More" from the New York hit "Fantastics." She wore a gold dress and accessories for the performance.

Miss America Donna Axum arrived on campus to participate in the Orient Pageant and crown the queen.

Ten finalists in the Orient Pageant were Karen Ferguson, Carol Rinard, Pam Wiley, Jo Anne Shultz, Joyce McCray, Evie VanLandingham, Sandy Zimmerman, Ruth Finrow, Kay Sommers, and Karen Miller.

Carol's rendition of "The Man I Love" aided her in winning this year's competition for Miss Ball State.

Pam Wiley, AOPi, waited to perform.

Kay Sommers played a piano solo of "Valse, Op.86."

Karen Ferguson, Sigma Sigma Sigma senior, described outfits she created to her own piano recordings.

Ruth Finrow, Ft. Wayne senior sponsored by Williams Hall, sang a medley from "West Side Story" for her talent.

Sandy Zimmerman and Ruth Finrow talked about the excitement of the Pageant at the tea held for finalists.

Activities Climaxed by Crowning

The Sigma Tau Gammas Captured Lambda Chi's Bike-a-Thon Honors

Several thousand balloons flew into the air, and the Lambda Chi Alpha Bike-a-Thon was officially started. First on the agenda was the faculty bike race. Captain Case of the Air Force ROTC department, dressed in his flight suit and crash helmet, pulled into an early lead and completed the race well ahead of the rest of the faculty members.

Next on the agenda the girls' sororities got their chance to get into the act in the traditional Trike-a-Thon. It was a close race but the Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority came in first with the Alpha Chi Omegas and the Alpha Sigma Alphas in second and third place respectively. The Delta Zetas won the first place trophy for their novel pit decorations.

Lap after lap of grueling torture began to show on each rider's face as he passed the grandstand.

The pace lap started as the official pace car led the pack around the course.

Elliot Hall lost valuable time as a wreck occurred during the all-important change of riders.

The Sigma Tau Gammas, winner of the Lambda Chi Bike-a-Thon for the second year lifted the team on their shoulders.

The Alpha Omicron Pis show off the first place trophy which they won in the trike-a-thon.

Howick Hall, who finished first in the independent division and fourth overall, performed a perfect interchange demonstration of the skill which led to their success and victory.

Sigma Tau Gamma Wins in Record Time

The 1963 Lambda Chi Alpha Bike-a-Thon had an entry of thirteen teams—the most teams to ever enter the event. The Sigma Tau Gamma bike squad was the first to break the tape after the grueling one hundred and twenty laps—a total of thirty miles. They set a new course record with an elapsed time of one hour, twenty five minutes, and fifty eight seconds.

This was the second consecutive year for the Sig Taus to win first place; they needed one more victory to retire the coveted trophy. Second and third place honors in the fraternity division went to Sigma Phi Epsilon and Sigma Chi respectively. Howick Hall, Williams Hall, and Air Force ROTC were the one, two, and three finishers for the independents.

As the pace lap began, the riders' faces began to show the tension that had built up in the preparation.

Faster than a speeding bullet and more powerful than a locomotive—that's Happy Walts speeding down the Track!

The Delta Zetas won the first place award for pit decorations with this original idea.

Pretty Miss Ball State, Marilyn Riner, congratulated the exuberant Sigma Tau Gamma bike squad and presented the coveted Bike-a-thon trophy to them for their victory.

Dr. John R. Emens

Ball State is a friendly campus, and it has a friendly president. Although Ball State's campus is expanding greatly, Dr. Emens has continued to preserve the friendly tradition which has existed for many years.

Dr. Emens holds an A.B. and M.Ed. from Eastern Michigan and an M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of Michigan. He has also received L.L.D. degrees from Wayne State University and Hanover College.

Dr. Emens has been president of Ball State Teachers College for nineteen years.

Closely associated with Dr. Emens is his large desk on the main floor of the Administration Building.

Dr. John E. Visser is assistant to the president.

Project English

The problem identified in Project English was that of teaching composition in the schools. "A common complaint is that students who spend more time in the study of English than in any other subject, cannot write effectively. "Teaching" students to express ideas through the graphical representation of the language becomes the unique job of the teacher of English.

Dr. Merrill C. Beyerl is dean of Students Affairs.

Students aids, counseling and testing, the health center, housing, placement, registration, religious activities, and student social activities are the areas covered by the Office of Student Affairs. The chief concern of Dr. Beyerl, dean of Student Affairs is student welfare. His staff proficiently works with students on both an individual and group basis.

Office of Student Affairs

Dr. Margaret L. Knueppel is director of Student Programs.

Miss Martha Wickham is assistant dean of students.

Mr. Norman E. Beck is director of Student Financial Aids.

Dr. Leo M. Hauptman is registrar.

Mr. Charles McNaughton is director of Placement.

Dr. Pittinger is Director of the Health Center.

Dr. Robert H. Koenker is associate dean and director of graduate programs.

Instructional Affairs

Dr. Robert L. Carmin is dean of the division of science and humanities.

Dr. Richard Burkhardt, vice president of Instructional Affairs and dean of controlling the use of all campus facilities, unifies faculty members under services such as curricular advising, examination services, extended services, undergraduate and graduate studies, research, the library, and summer sessions on campus.

Dr. Jerome A. Fallon is associate dean and director of instructional services.

Mr. Norman Bell is assistant of instructional services.

Dr. Joseph Wagner is vice president and treasurer of Business Affairs.

Three Divisions Created

Mr. Philip Conklin is administrative assistant in business and finance.

Mr. James A. Smith is manager of data processing.

Mr. George Newton is chief accountant and financial officer.

Mr. A. Garland Hardy is director of space studies and utilization.

Mr. Robert H. Showalter is superintendent of the physical plant.

Mr. H. Ansel is manager of purchasing.

Miss Ethel Himelick is assistant treasurer of Business Affairs.

Two years ago the fourteen departments in the Instructional Affairs area were reorganized into three separate divisions: the fine and applied arts, the education, and the science and humanities division.

Public Affairs

The office of Public Affairs is concerned with conveying an accurate presentation of Ball State on campus and to the community, the state of Indiana, and the nation. Dr.

Oliver Bumb heads the staff of Public Affairs and is Ball State's chief public relations man. In carrying out his duties, he employs the various communication media: radio, television, newspapers, photographs, newsletters, and sports publications.

Mr. Odell is director of conferences and special events.

Miss Marie Frasier is director of Public Information.

Dr. Robert Linson and Mr. Raymond W. Ashley are directors of Alumni Relations.

Mr. Shilling is in charge of college development.

Public Affairs

College Development is also included in the area of Public Affairs.

As the coordinator of development Dr. Bumb handles the plans for new buildings, arranges new facilities, and oversees the raising of funds. Other people connected with the staff are those responsible for keeping in touch with alums of the college. The Alumni office presents a report of campus activities via a publication entitled "Alumnus."

Mr. Thomas Osborn is director of Traffic, Safety and Security.

Art Department

The Art department undertook the task of redecorating the East and West lounges of the Arts Building; remodeling has also been accomplished in the art gallery. The department offered an interdepartmental course "The Arts in Contemporary Society." The work of two Cuban artists has been added to the permanent collection. Also acquired has been a New Guinea ancestral head and a Yoruba snake mask. Sculpture was done for the auditorium by Dr. Vincent Burns.

Dr. Alice Nichols, head of the Art Department, poses with her two companions, the poodles.

Dr. Roberta Law and Mr. Byron Shurtlef discuss class activities.

Joe Burtrand, Ned Griner, and Vincent Burns watch as Student Bruce Ward places his sculpture in a vice.

Donald Johnson, James Straley, Jack Thurman, Carl Sabo, and Duwayne Anderson.

Air Science Department

Captain Charles Case instructs a class of cadets in aviation.

Air Force ROTC is in its seventh year at Ball State. The purpose of the program is to prepare students who have aptitude for flying before they could begin training on a post-graduate level. During the year, Major Duane E. Russell was recognized for his efforts in the cold war.

Marching Matadors, placed first in a Wisconsin drill competition, and the Marching Mademoiselles placed first in the Cherry Blossom Festival.

Alfred Colvin, William Bright, Duane Russell, Charles Case, and John Klutz of the Air Science faculty.

Donald Lawrance, James Burnhart, and Arnold Ounapu examine insurance policies.

Business Department

Robert Bowman and Honora Noyes discuss the extended services program.

Frances Robinson, Jane Whelan and Lois Guthrie look on as Dr. Samuel Dry and Dr. Robert Myers attempt to use the typewriter.

Each year the business department expands its program in three principal areas—business administration, business education, and secretarial training. The department has a program of extended services for inservice secretaries; there is also an accounting internship under the guidance of Virgil Herring who recently received his CPA certificate. A new course in the curriculum is one in data processing.

Business Department

Dr. W. W. Renke, Dr. Maurice Eash and Dr. Carson Bennett discuss the large class lecture method.

Several new courses have been added to the undergraduate curriculum this year. The department has also expanded the program in special education. This year the first full doctoral degrees in elementary education were awarded. A research program on creativity was started the results to be used in screening teacher application. The Two major events of the year are the Elementary Education Day and the Core Conference. Workshops for administrators and teachers were conducted.

English Department

The foremost project of the English Department is the television station that should be completed in the near future. The television station will serve departmental students, Ball State students and the community of Muncie. An orientation program is being planned so departmental professors will have a working knowledge of the closed circuit programing arrangements. The department is being helped on the project by U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

In addition, initial steps are now being taken to revise the times and sizes of English classes. Large, lecture classes of one hundred plus students are now being conducted. The English department also works with the Honors Program, the Debate team, the Little Theater programs, and the Student Publications. These achievements and the individual achievements of professors writing articles for journals and magazines combine for progress.

Miss Janet Ross assists Marsha Raymond, Jan Perry, and Joe Weaver in preparing and selecting copy for Stet.

Foreign Language Department

With the success of the German phonetics class, Dr. Wallace Magoon future chairman of NSCTE, with other foreign language professors and instructors are anticipating a program in first year ancient Greek. Now in progress is the attempt to coordinate high school foreign language programs with those of the colleges. The language laboratory is in the wake of replacement as equipment is replaced by new models.

Dr. Robert Sears and Mrs. Iris Magoon watch foreign student Mrs. Helga Howard read from a German text.

Demitri Sotiropoulos and Dr. Wallace Magoon, head of the foreign language department, assist graduate Latin student Mrs. Schrenher.

Frances Phillips, a visiting lecturer, used the recorder in the lab as Dr. Vivienne Bey, Mrs. Helen Greenleaf, Mrs. Burton, and Mrs. Eldon Jenkins watched.

Home Economics Department

Miss Ellen Lacy assists two girls in vacuuming the home management house, moving the furniture.

The Home Economics Department is planning to add several courses to its programs. These will consist of interior design and home furnishings, family housing, household equipment, and quantity food purchasing. These courses will cover the variety of areas of concern within the department. The most unique part of learning is attributed to the Home Management House. Each girl is required to live one quarter prior to graduation within the house. With seven other girls, the girl plans and budgets expenses, prepares meals, and learns to cooperate with others.

Edgar Wagner demonstrates some of the newly acquired industrial arts equipment.

Industrial Arts Department

As Ball State grows, so does the need for expansion within the Industrial Arts Department. When enrollment increases, so must the space allotted for classrooms. A program of reorganization is now underway in the home of the Practical Arts Building. Every effort is being made to replace obsolete equipment in order to keep pace with the fast-changing modern world. The laboratories are being partitioned and the shops, reorganized. This division has annual meetings in the fall to discuss pertinent problems, improving and coordinating systems so that the department functions for the betterment of Ball State, Muncie, and Indiana in general.

The Industrial Arts department acquired new, much needed equipment for the shops.

Kenneth Bergman goes over future expansion plans with the faculty members.

Mr. George Grunwald, Mr. Duane Deal, Miss Emma Garnett, and Miss Martha Breitweiser attend a committee meeting.

Mathematics Department

Mr. Charles Parish and two students, Hughe Wilkinson and Charolette Rush, watch as Dr. J. H. Neeley explains geometric models.

Miss Emma Garnett goes over some math problems with a student.

Dr. Earl McKinney, head of the Math department, and other members of the faculty participate in a faculty seminar in the Sunburst Room.

The new concepts in mathematics education in elementary schools which are currently taught at Ball State is being instituted in the Marion School system. Dr. Higgins and seven other instructors are assisting in coordinating the new program and the preparation of instructors. "Analytic and Projective Geometry" is the title of the book recently completed by Dr. John H. Neeley, a visiting professor and lecturer from Carnegie Institute. Currently it is a text for Dr. Neeley's classes. Introduction to computer techniques is a class arranged and conducted through data processing.

Music Department

"That class is really out of this world."

This was comment made by a Ball State student about the piano technology classes which give students a practical knowledge of the workings of a piano as well as tuning.

As Ball State looms toward university status, the music department expects the Auditorium to be a showcase of Midwest music.

A workshop is planned for opera which will include dance, drama, and orchestra.

Mary Lois Yeo and Katherine B. Rutledge practice at the pianos.

Dr. Robert Hargurves, head of the music department, examines a musical composition with his colleagues.

Physical Education Department

Athletic trainers.

This year the Physical Education Department developed a point system for men who are majoring or minoring in Physical Education. Each man must attain twenty points before he will be cleared for upper division work; he must attain forty points before graduation. Points are earned through varsity and freshman teams, athletic clubs, and intramural participation.

Fred Kehoe, Donald Shondell, and Miss Patricia Johnson.

Mr. Edward Lyon, associate professor of science, and Mr. Henry Kane, assistant professor of geology, explained a molecular diagram to two students.

National Science Foundation has awarded a $70,200 grant to the department which will enable 52 secondary teachers of biology to become familiar with the new molecular approach to biology being taught at Ball State. Dr. Jerry Nisbet is serving as director for the institute. An amphibian research lab is being developed by Dr. Ann Reynolds through funds from the National Institute of Health.

Dr. Robert Cooper, head of the department; Dr. Russell Siverly, biology professor; Mr. Henry Kane, geology professor; and Dr. Lowell Dillon, associate professor of geography, were recognized for their accomplishments in research. Construction on the addition to the science building has halted pending a decision by a state commission.

Dr. Lester Schmidt and Dr. P. M. Mayfield.

Social Science Department

Dr. Herbert Hamilton, Dr. W. L. Gruenwald and Mr. Ira Carmin.

One of the major activities of the Social Science department was their presentation of a lecture series concerning problems in American Democracy. The department has continued to expand its program to meet the demands of greater enrollment. A new course in the history of American Culture was added. Five students in the department were sent to the model United Nations in St. Louis, Missouri. The Ball State delegation represented Guinea.

Mr. James Huston

Dr. W. L. Gruenwald and Dr. Richard Caldemeyer

Mr. Robert Lawson and Mrs. Barbara Henneberry.

Campus Police

Campus Police offices are located in the Office of Traffic and Safety on University Avenue. Members of the force are on the job throughout the day and night, helping Ball State students by enforcing regulations designed to keep the campus a safe place to live. They fireproofed trees at Christmas and throughout the year provided rides to the health center for ill students.

Campus police are often seen giving tickets.

Directing traffic at the scramble light became necessary when the light failed to function.

Dining Service

Members of dining service provided balanced meal menus for the students in dorms; the cafeteria staff prepared meals for commuters and guests. Service with a smile was the order of every day; sometimes words were added to evince an answering smile and vocalized "Hello!"

Seniors Ordered Caps and Gowns

Graduation day was drawing nigh. Seniors ordered caps and gowns through the Bookstore, knowing that wearing them would be a hot, murky, but happy job.

Graduation Brought Smiles and Tears

Interviews with placement officials and completion of forms and contracts filled busy and hectic days for graduates. Outstanding Seniors and seniors selected for Who's Who were recognized at Senior Convo. The furious activity was culminated in a great day for new alums—Commencement Day, 1964.

Seniors congregated before commencement to review past experiences and discuss future plans.

Senior coed experienced moment of silence and thoughtfulness, considering the impact of the four years just past and the promise of the future.

Mixed emotions were experienced by most seniors as they anticipated graduation; there were open smiles and inward tears, smiles for the happy memories and tears because the memories could never return. Commencement marked the end of the "happiest years," four years spent at Ball State; too, it marked the beginning of an independent life. Alumni emerged into a world different from that of their high school years, more complex and impersonal than their college years. "What will my future be? Perhaps I'll begin graduate work." "Or maybe I'll take it easy . . . just teach for awhile."

A big moment! "I shook hands with Dr. Emens and received my diploma . . . at the same time!"

"Dad . . . Mom . . . I'm so thrilled! Four years were really worth Graduation!"

At their record hop the men of Phi Sigma Epsilon sponsored Baby Huey and his band, the Colossal Vets. The men of Phi Sig participate in almost every phase of the intramural program on campus. Their efforts were rewarded during the football season as they won the fraternity "B" league for regular season play. Many of their other teams were regarded highly in various competitions.

Phi Sigma Epsilon

Sigma Chi

Fried fish was the menu for a record number of people as the men of Sigma Chi joined Tri-Sigma sorority for a fall Jonah Fish Fry. Derby Day was another social highlight for the Sigs who were busily planning an addition to the fraternity house. Plans called for completion by fall of 1964.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

After a quarter of living at the Delaware Hotel, the men of Sigma Phi Epsilon moved into their completed house. Competition was keen in all intramural sports from flag football in the fall to splashket ball in the spring. Trade parties and fraternity parties rounded out the social calendar for the Eps.

Sigma Theta

Accompanying the securing of a fraternity house at 500 Riverside, participation from Sigma Theta men soared on campus. The gain of a good campus standing will enable the men to affiliate soon with a national fraternity. This year Sigma Thetas welcomed a new housemother, Mrs. Mildred Sylvester who worked closely with the remodeling.

Frustration marked the efforts of the men of Theta Chi as they attempted to secure land for their proposed fraternity house on Riverside Avenue. Residents of the area successfully blocked attempts through appeals to the zoning board. Theta Chi men joined the women of Alpha Chi Omega in sponsoring the festivities of the Bowery Ball.

Theta Xi

Coming from the University of Cincinnati to be housemother for the men of Theta Xi was Mrs. Spann. Again this year, Theta Xi sponsored the all-Greek Variety Show. With new improvements and renewed spirit, the participating Greeks worked with zeal towards presenting the winning skit. The Show was held for the first time in Emens Auditorium.

AWRH Officers

The Association of Women's Residence Halls is the group that keeps unity among the halls. They inform the halls of the doings of the other halls. This year they conducted a UN workshop to define the jobs to the newly elected officers of each hall.

Baker Hall

Baker and Williams Halls worked together to decorate the halls at Homecoming. Their theme was "Pick the Sycamores Clean." All four Noyer Halls worked together on a closed dance in the spring. Each hall had a chairman who worked with the others to unify the project.

Beeman Hall

At the beginning of the school year, Beeman Hall had a trade party with Williams Hall. Two of the residents were finalists in the Orient pageant. Beeman also sponsored a Mother's Weekend in April.

Brady Hall

Brady's theme for Homecoming was "It's Oscar time for the Cards." Using this theme, they had a large gold Oscar on their front lawn. During the year they held three trade parties with Wagoner and Elliott.

Crosley Hall

Crosley Hall participated in the conference called "Love Is Enough, If—" which opened with a short punch hour and keynote speech by Dr. R. B. Cochran, a Muncie obstetrician. The women had a special luncheon followed by group discussions.

DeMotte Hall

Miss Marguerite Haugen, director of DeMotte Hall, returned from a year's leave of absence, during which she visited thirty foreign countries. This year DeMotte sponsored an evening of scholarship featuring guest speakers.

Klipple Hall

Klipple and Howick Halls proved to be quite a winning combination this year as their joint effort won first prize for homecoming decorations. Their theme, "Stump 'em," was depicted by Babe the blue ox and Paul Bunyan on their lawn.

Lucina Hall

Lucina's busy year included a Christmas party for local orphans; Father's Weekend, with the theme "Make Room for Daddy"; a Valentine's Sweet-heart Tea for their dates; and long-awaited re-decorating, which included new furniture and a new paint job in the lounges.

Rogers Hall

Rogers Hall this year has a new director. Mrs. Imogene Martin filled in last year in Crosley and helped as assistant director in Lucina. Under Mrs. Martin, Rogers had trade parties with Howick and Elliott Halls.

Tichenor Hall

Tichenor Hall sponsored a play school for children of faculty and graduate students. The hall also held seminars to help new freshmen become acquainted with Ball State and a human relations workshop.

Trane Hall

This year Trane adopted a sixth grade class from West Longfellow Elementary School. They invited the class to the hall for a tour, skit, songs, and refreshments. The class showed their appreciation by inviting the women to their classroom for a party.

Wood Hall

Wood Hall women participated in the conference, sponsored by Woodworth Halls, on Sex and Coeds. Dr. R. B. Cochran, Dr. Mildred Ballou, Mrs. Richard Burkhart, and Dr. Merrill Rippy were the speakers. The Wood Hall choir sang several selections.

MRHA Officers

The Men's Residence Hall Association probed questions concerning residence hall living. One of the problems is over-crowding. Another problem on this campus is that students over 21 years of age want the privilege to choose their own housing.

Elliott Hall

Again the men of Elliott went all out for annual Homecoming decorations. Their theme, "The Greatest Festival on Earth," was depicted by a circus, complete with sideshow, posters, and acts. After the morning of judging, the men held a punch hour for their guests.

Howick Hall

Howick started the year with a "Tradewinds" trade party with Klipple. At Halloween, the two halls again combined to have a costume party. Their decorations for homecoming won first place in the residence hall classification.

Wagoner Hall

Wagoner cultural committee was active in getting guest speakers and movies for the men. They had a regular Thursday evening series. The men initiated a new idea on the campus, that of residence hall serenades. This venture proved to be a success and was well liked by all.

Ellen Lockwood, layout editor

telephoned to confer picture times.*

Tom Brown, editor-in-chief, spent much time answering letters.

The layout editor has the job of laying out each page and picking which picture goes where. The pictures are assigned to the photographer by the photography editor. The copy editor not only edits the copy, but also assigns it. The editor-in-chief is overseer. He goes over each page to be sure it is good enough to have his name connected with it.

Dale Wenning was chief photographer.

Foundation Staff Assists Directors

Bill Kenney, assistant photographer, started working in the middle of the year, but learned quickly and became indispensable to the staff.

Peggy Anderson and Bobbie Vaccaro, Sales and Promotion, look over the list of Orient salesmen.

Sharon Shrader and Jeanine Carter, Seniors.

The Orient has two staffs: One is the Directors and the other is the Foundation Staff. The Directors are assigned to an area of the book, for which they write the copy. The Foundation Staff comes through to help with typing for deadlines and triplicate copies of layouts. Some of them help the directors with writing copy. Others work on Sales and Promotion.

Choosing pictures required teamwork. Nancy Johnson, Residences Director, enlisted the help of Cheryl Fenn, a layout assistant.

Making triplicate copies of layouts pages was a major job on the Orient. Mike Howard did his share of them along with indexing.

Steve Clippinger, Staff Artist, helps Lana Bouslog make layouts artistically correct.

Keeping up with every activity on the campus every day was only a small part of the editor-in-chief's job. Carolyn Jackson was editor-in-chief of the Friday edition of the Ball State News spring quarter.

Phone calls to the printer are a necessary, everyday job for Managing Editor, Jerry Ringle, who OK's the work.

Ball State News Adds New AP Teletype

With the addition of the AP teletype, the Ball State News is now a member of both the major news organs. Tuesdays and Fridays are deadline days for News editions. Staff work is done on Tuesdays and Thursdays; editors work to edit copy before the paper goes to press.

Improvements often are derived from previous mistakes. Jan Moore, Society Editor, and Marcia Cline, Associate Editor, go over copy.

Co-Feature Editors, Jo Royer and Linda Woodard, discuss and edit a story for the next column in the paper.

News Staff

The editors assign beats to reporters who get the story and write it. The copy editors edit the stories, the layout editors decide on placement and length. The story must then be cut or lengthened to fit the space allotted. Pictures are scanagraved and fillers are found. The managing editor takes the pieces to the printer and the finished product is then distributed.

Orient Pageant Directors Plan Exciting Evening

The details that go into the evening when Miss Ball State is chosen take months of work to iron out. Candidates must be selected, and the auditorium contracted for. Publicity became a job for papers, posters, radio and television. Judges had to be contacted and this year a special guest was invited. Miss America Donna Axum, crowned our queen, Carol Rinard.

Cardinal Code Informs

The Cardinal Code is a booklet published each year to help new students on Ball State's campus. It gives information on the facilities available to students. It names campus organizations and honoraries and lists qualifications for membership.

The editors of the Cardinal Code were Nancy Speichert, Jeanine Carter, and Jane Bleile.

1964 Orient Ball State Teachers College

This year we have tried to accomplish two things: produce a book that students will enjoy for years to come and organize the best possible yearbook from a competitive standpoint.

The fruit of our labor is in your hand. Our work has been rewarding, but often frustrating.

Production of a yearbook this size was possible through the efforts of the following people.

Tom Brown, editor-in-chief

Sonda Cain
